Chapter 1 by Tara

The sky filled with mist and smoke as the Cybertronian war fought for survival. The young female Autobot looked up at the sky wondering if this war will ever end.

Chapter 2 by Mia

Every morning the same red sky rising, covered in smoke from the fire of the suburbians still alive. She was one of the only Autobot not needing a recharge in the morning. Instead she made her way to the human camp with food and medicine.

Chapter 3 by intellikat

Although she longed to fight the Decepticonians on that broad expanse of sky above the decimated planet, she knew that she would not be accepted as a female. Her weapons were small and impotent compared to Autobots like Flash, Wizz, Spick, and Jeff Jefferson. She was not as fast as Globulus Horn or Tarantula or even Mister Squeaky Pipes. But she had a heart of pure gold, and a story to tell.

Chapter 4 by Tyler Fishbourne

Her story begins here at a cybertronian hospital as a baby her mother arcee and her father Optimus Prime where very glad to have a baby girl in there life for the first time in forever they could see that their little girl would be special in a ever good way not knowing how or when but they know and she herself didn't know but at this moment the wheel of faith had started to turn and she would have to decided what happens and Optimus Prime had begun arguing. The two warring factions had begun arguing. The two warring factions had begun arguing.

Netflix(tm) and mix tails from 7-11, but Arcee was pressuring Optimus to be a man and step up to the task of true fatherhood.

"I want her to be a Prime," said Arcee.

"The fuck she will be," replied Optimus, hunkering down on the sofa. "You know my parents will never accept that. And they're the ones holding onto my inheritance."

"It is because I'm... yellow?" whispered Arcee, fighting back the tears. "You're okay with making love to me... but not with accepting our daughter into your family?"

"It's not about me. It's about my father. He doesn't like yellow Autoboticonians. He had a bad experience once."

"We're getting married."

"No, we're not. I said I'd help you through the birthing process and a little while... undecided amount... after. But I gotta get back to doing what I do best." Optimus Prime stood to full height. "Beating hell out of Decepticonianites. The team needs me. The planet needs me."

But before Arcee could respond, the first blast wave hit the city, decimating the entire neighborhood.
